

THE ARCHITECT'S diary

This 1650 sq ft apartment was purchased as an empty shell, with only the bare walls, doors, windows and flooring completed. The interior spaces were redesigned to make the apartment feel luxurious, compact and efficient taking advantage of the natural breeze and panoramic views.

